

. Being Mortal

. Consider the Conversation

Consider the Conversation: Robin Kivett, MSN, RN, CHPN, is the Advance Care Planning Facilitator for Cape Fear Valley Health System. She will facilitate a viewing and conversation surrounding several chapters of the video, Consider the Conversation. This documentary explains the importance of advance care planning and how a lack of planning affects patients, families, and health care providers.

Being Moral: Ragen McLaurin is the Hospice Liaison for Amedisys, Inc, and she will provide a viewing of Being Mortal, which is a groundbreaking PBS Special based upon the best-selling book by Atul Gawanda, MD. This film explores the relationship between physicians and dying patients. How can the medical professional better help people navigate the final chapters of their lives with confidence, direction and purpose? Following the film, Ragen will facilitate an open conversation regarding themes presented in the film.

When: Tuesday March 27, 2018

Where: Sampson County Auditorium

435 County Complex Rd

Clinton, NC, 28328

Time: 8:30 a.m.—12:00 p.m.

Workshop is FREE and open to the public

Registration is required.

Register by calling Kareem Strong, Regional Long-Term Care Ombudsman at (910) 323-4191 x 25 by March, 23, 2018

Training provided by:

Cape Fear Valley Health Care System, Amedisys Inc, Mid-Carolina Area Agency on Aging—Ombudsman Program

CEUs will be available; Specify During RSVP