When Words Fade, Music Speaks

Join Lisa Hughes of Dementia Alliance of North Carolina for two music-focused opportunities! Attend one or both sessions—each is open to all, regardless of participation in the other.

Educational Presentation: On Wednesday, February 17, 2027, from 10 am to noon, discover the benefits of music in dementia care, how to use it with intention, and learn about the My Music NC program.

Memory Café: On Wednesday, February 24, 2027, from 10 am to noon, people living with dementia and their caregivers are welcome to enjoy fun musical activities, connect with others, and complete playlist builder information for those interested in receiving a personalized music kit.

Location:
Bill Crisp Senior Center
7560 Raeford Rd
Fayetteville, NC 28304

For more information and RSVP, contact:
Barbara White
910-323-4191 Ext. 28
bwhite@mccog.org or Belinda Jackson
belindajackson@fayettevillenc.gov

MID-CAROLINA REGIONAL COUNCIL
Creative Regional Solutions

MY MUSIC NC

DEMENTIA ALLIANCE of North Carolina
A STATE OF CARING